

Juanita Tsu, Accompanist

Juanita Tsu has brought a wealth of talent and expertise to the Leisure World Chorale ever since she accepted the position of Chorale Accompanist in 2002.

She has performed extensively on stage, radio, and television as a recital soloist, as soloist with various orchestras and chamber music groups, and as accompanist for a wide range of instrumentalists and vocalists.

At the age of seven and a half, Ms. Tsu started playing the piano and at 15 she entered the National Academy of Arts in Taiwan as a piano performance major. She earned her Bachelor of Music degree in Baltimore, Maryland at the Peabody Conservatory of Music.

She earned a Master of Music Degree at the New England Conservatory in Boston, Massachusetts.

Ms. Tsu served as a faculty member at the University of Massachusetts, Lowell from 1977 to 2000 where she was coordinator of the piano program.

Ms. Tsu opened her Southern California Piano Studio after moving to the Laguna Woods Village in July 2000. In addition to accompanying the Chorale, she serves as Choir Director for the Reform Temple of the Village, accompanies the Mission Viejo High School Choirs, and accompanies the Seventh Day Adventist Church Choir of Garden Grove.
